

Angle Grinder Induction

Operator Name:	Date:
PPE
Demonstrate how to check the PPE is safe to use
Demonstrate you are wearing the correct PPE
Demonstrate the following procedures whilst disconnected from the power
Demonstrate how to check the power cord is safe to use
Demonstrate how to check the disc is safe to use
Demonstrate how to change the disc
Demonstrate how to adjust the guard and how to check it is safe to use
Demonstrate how to check the handle is safe to use
Demonstrate how to position and operate the extraction system
Demonstrate the following procedures whilst connected to power
Demonstrate how to safely use the angle grinder to cut a piece of metal
Demonstrate how to safely use the angle grinder to grind a piece of metal
Understand the following things
How to report faults (users should not fix problems themselves)
Meaning of No Lone Working rule
Which PPE is required or recommended (goggles required, breathing protection required; gloves must be worn)
Need to disconnect power whilst inspecting or changing the disc
Users must not enter the area behind the curtains when another user is using the grinder in that area
Dust extraction must be used
User is responsible for cleaning up

When competence has been achieved, tick the appropriate requirement.

I confirm that the above named has received safety induction training as indicated on this checklist	I confirm that I have received safety induction as indicated on this checklist and that I am confident in the safe use of the machine.
Name	Name
Signature	Signature